Parenting in a Pandemic

What is the programme about?

As parents or carers you want the best for your child, because you know your child better than us. Come and help support us, to challenge your children to be the best they can. With our combined knowledge we will....Make new friends. Work together. Share ideas and experiences. Have fun. Help you become more confident as a parent and less stressed.

What is covered?

A step by step process, helping parents and carers to identify three things.
In a Pandemic

- What their child's challenging behaviour is?
- Why it is happening?
- How they might go about changing it?

The digital sessions will assist Parents in a Pandemic in finding their own solutions to their children's behaviour challenges and bring the fun back into family life.

“At first I had my doubts, It was a big step to attend. Having four children - I didn't think there was much to learn from this, but the ideas from other parents helped me realise how to prevent unwanted behaviours from happening. Simple changes made big differences.”
